

From the SRPD on June 22, 2010:

There has been some recent burglary activity in the Glenwood and Peacock Gap area involving unlocked cars, homes and garage doors. The first incident was on May 28th on Lockwood Drive where jewelry was stolen from a master bedroom. An incident on Peacock Drive involved the theft of bicycles from an unlocked garage. The most recent incidents were on Snowberry Court where an IPOD was stolen from an unsecured garage and cash was taken from an unlocked vehicle.

Video surveillance footage was obtained from one of the incidents on Snowberry Court. The following is a description of the suspect.

- White Male
- 17-29 yrs old
- 5-8 to 6-0 tall
- Medium build
- Wearing eye glasses, T-shirt, loose fitting pants, sneakers
- Carrying what may be a flash light in right hand

All of this activity has involved unlocked houses, garages, and cars. We have not had any cases with forced entry. Please remember to lock you doors to your houses, garages, and cars. If anyone sees any suspicious activity, please call SRPD immediately at 485-3000.
